BRYAN'S PLANS NOT MADE.

WILL DECIDE ON NO TOURS UNTIL THE OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION.

Surprised at the Announcement That He Is to Make a Number of Speeches in This State-Gov. Roosevelt's Proposed Speaking Tour of Nebraska Disturbs the Democrats.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 24.-Mr Beyan was somewhat surprised this morning when he read in the papers that the New York State Committee had announced that he would make a number of speeches in that S ate after Oct. 1. He said he had been asked to fix some date when he could go there, but that he had come to no decision in the matter. After the Indianapolis notification, he added, there were two others those of the Populists and Free Silver Republicans, and the dates and places of these had yet to be fixed. Until that was done no campaign engagements would be made.

Mr. Bryan's only visitor of political distinct tion to-day was J. A. Edgerton, Secretary of the Populist National Committee. Mr. Edgerton laughed at the stories of possible Fusion defeat in Colorado this year, and said that fusion was perfect and defections few. He and Mr. Bryan had an informal talk over the matter of the notification by the Populists. He favors having it in some Western city, preferably Lincoin, where whatever political benefit that accrues from such ceremonies will be of increased value. This and other plans concerning the maintenance of good feeling between the parties to the fusion will be settled, Mr. Edgerton thinks, at the joint meetsettled. Mr. Edgerton thinks, at the joint meeting of members of the two National committees in thicago next week. Mr. Edgerton to-day opened national headquarters for the Populist Committee at the Lincoln Hotel, where a whole floor has been engaged.

Senator Butler seems to have rested on the laurets he achieved in a received not as chairman, and will not take an active part in the management of the campaign. He is just now busy attempting to secure a reelection as Senator by ment of the campaign. The is just now days at tempting to secure a reelection as Senator by an alliance between the Populists and the Re-publicans. His ampaign will end shortly, and he expects to attend the meeting in Chicago and afterwards to formally install the work here. He will be nominal chairman only, and and afterwards to tormally install the work hefe. He will be nominal chairman only, and will leave the work in charge of Vice-Chairman Edmisten and Secretary Edgerton because of their greater familiarity with the politics and politicians of this part of the country.

The fact that the party known as "Populists" has always borne the official designation of "People's Independent" threatens to be the cause of litigation in the Western States. The Mid-roaders in this State have adopted the name "Populist" and will demand that their candidates be so designated on the official ballot. They, however, are a branch of the national organization, which claims to be the only real People's Independent party, and the point is made by the State officers that they cannot take any other designation, but must stand or fall on their right to the old party name.

The announcement that Roos velt had promised to make a series of campaign speeches in Nebraska in September or October has considerably disturbed the Democrats here. Nebraska sent 3,000 young men to Cuba and they all have a very lively admiration for the Rough Riders' Colonels, The cowboys o northwestern Nebraska are elated over the fact that they will have the opportunity to men and hear a man who cause there to be one of them and they pro-nive the opportunity to meet and hear a man who once chose to be one of them and they pro-pose giving him a reception that will recall home of his earlier experiences. The State some of his earlier experences. The State Committee has received information that Gov. Rooseveit can come in Settember, but they want him in October, nearer the end of the campaign, and promise him an itinerary that will enable him to do the State in a few days. The Democrats are talking of putting Webster Dayls on Roosevell's track.

Mr. Bryan has wired Chairman Riddle of the Davis on Roo-evelt's track.

Mr. Bryan has wired Chairman Riddle of the Kansas Populist State Committee that he will be unable to accept an invitation that came to-day from the Fusion State conventions to address them at FortScott Kan. He reiterated that he would speak nowhere before his Indianapolis speech.

Mrs. Bryan will accompany her husband to Indianapolis. They have promised Mr. Stevenson and his daughter that they will spend a little time with them at Minnetonka some time during August, but the indefinite character of their plans does not permit saying when they will go.

DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS. Will Be in the Rooms the Republicans Had is Chicago in 1896.

CHICAGO, July 24 .- Senator Jones and Na tional Committeeman Gahan of Illinois held a conference at the Auditorium Annex today, at which the place of the National Demo cratic headquarters was definitely decided upon. The committee will occupy the rooms used by the Republican National Committee in 1896, and has signed a contract for fourteen apartments, on he second, third and fourth floors of the Auditorium building. The entrance is from Wabash avenue. The rooms are well suited for the purpose, the only draw-

In the selection of the headquarters the

In the selection of the headquarters the Republicans and Democrats have exchanged locations, and this fact has caused great rejoicing among those Democrats who are inclined to be superstitious. They say that the Democratic National Committee now has the winning headquarters.

Chairman Jones of the Democratic National Committee left this afternoon for Washington to confer with the National Congressional Committee. He said that no definite plans had been made for the Eastern headquarters, He will be back in Chicago the latter part of the week, and will make his arrangements for the opening of the national headquarters in this city in August. He will be in Chicago the greater part of the time from then until the polis close in November. close in November.

NAY, NAY, SAYS COLER. He Doesn't Want to Run for Governor Whatever Mr. Hill Wants. The Hon. David Bennett Hill is now resting at Normandie-by-the-Sea. In odd moments is interested apparently in the selection of a Democratic candidate for Governor. His first prize is the Hon, Bird S. Coler, Comptroller of the city of New York. Mr. Coler likes Mr. Hill very well, but Mr. Coler also has to spend part of his time looking out for Mr. Coler. Mr. Hill hopes to induce Mr. Coler to stand as the Democratic candidate for Governor. Mr. Coler does not see it that way. He believes that he should remain as Comptroller and after that he should go back to his banking house in Wall street. As a matter of fact, Mr. Coler told his personal friends yesterday that under no circumstances would he accept a nomination for Governor. Of course a man may be induced to change a decision. The Democrats from Richard Croker and David B. Hill down are looking easerly toward the Republicans, and if the Republicans nominate what the Democrats consider to be a weak man, Mr. Croker and Mr. Hill may get together and insist upon the nomination of Comptroller Coler. As a matter of fact, it may be said that Comptroller Coler and men of his type do not care to run for Governor of this state on the Democratic ticket before 1903, and Mr. Hill and Mr. Croker are perfectly aware of this. a Democratic candidate for Governor. BRYAN NOTIFICATION CEREMONIES.

Democrats in Indianapolis Who Opposed the Candidate in '96 on the Committee. INDIANAPOLIS, July 24.—The local committee which will have charge of the arrangement in connection with the notification of Bryan and Stevenson on Aug. 8 were announced today and there is much surprise in political streles that so much prominence has been given to Democrats who were opposed to the nominee a 1886 and who havenot been publicly announced as having returned to the party fold. It is explained that the appointees were willing to take part in the notification ceremonies and the managers say that their selection was decided upon as the best way of reintroducing them into the party. Some of the free silver men think that a mistake has been made, but in order to prevent noterlety they refuse to be anoted. day and there is much surprise in political

There will be leats for 30 600, and a canopy, made of red, white and blue bunting and la vishly decerated with flars, will cover the stand on which Bryan and Stevenson and the Notification Committee will be scated. A meeting will be held on the alght following and Mr. Bryan will be asked to speak. The notification will take place in the afternoon.

SACO, Me . July 24 .- In a letter of acceptance sacd, sie., July 24.—In a letter of acceptance as used to-day, the Hon. Samuel Lord of Saco, the Democratic candidate for Governor, raid that this country is rapidly approaching a condition which will require the most swifful treatment. "Or our boasted freedom will be doomed and the emi ire take the place of the Republic." He added that every loyal Democrat, in view of the aurming condition, ought to support Bryan and Stevenson.

PROBLEMITION STATE CONVENTION.

The Temporary Chairman Attacks the Rainer Law and the Manuer of Its Enforcement. UTICA, July 24.-The Prohibition State Convention opened at Summit Park, a resort near here, this morning. About two hundred delegates are present. Henry W. Wilbur of New York, editor of the Defender, the Prohibition organ, was chosen temporary chairman. He made a lengthy address touching the aims and objects of the party and lambasted Republicans and Democrats in the regulation way. Referring to the Raines law, Mr. Wilbur said: "A series of fraud and failures have charac-

with and settle the liquor problem. They have proposed to restrict and regulate the liquor traffic, and have succeeded in proving the impossibility of the task. After an experience with the peculiar heathen Chines dark ways and vain tricks of Warner Miller, the G. O. P. succeeded in capturing the Government of the State of New York. It then racked its brain and give us the Raines law fearfully and wonderfully made. This statute has multiplied the glin mills in rural communities and everywhere has united the publican and the prostitute in the work of infamy and in the name of law. Its supposed restrictive features are a dead letter upon the statute book, the law being held in contempt and evaded and volated in every gin mill in the State. With the friends of the law holding the State offices and a powerful machine set up, greased and running by the law's behest, its enforcement has been and is one of the most stupendous legal farces in the history of the commonwealth. In the county of Onondaga, out o' 86 indictments by the Grand Jury for violating provisions of the Raines law, but one was convicted and punished. Only 14 of the indicted parties were ever called upon to plead at all; 72 of the persons resting under indictment were permitted to do business as if nothing had happened.

"In twenty months, 1,100 Raines law cases were brought in New York county. Of this number, 139 were indicted, and 19 out of the 1,100 were brought to trial and convicted. It would trouble the most industrious critic of prohibition to flead a case where a prohibitory law is more poorly or indifferently enforced by its enemies than is the Raines law by its friends. We submit that a political party which thus makes a muddle of liquor lexislation, is by nature unfit to cope with the liquor problem, and is too far gone in rum subserviency to lay hold of the means of grace."

The principal business to-day was the appointment of committees. Nominations will be made to-morrow. proposed to restrict and regulate the liquor trafile, and have succeeded in proving the im

ERVING WINSLOW'S PARTY.

No One Can Say Who the Anti-Imperialists Are For, He Says, Until After Aug. 15.

BOSTON, July 24.-Secretary Erving Winslow repudiates the so-called anti-Imperialist and Gold Democratic conference which is now taking place at Indianapolis, so far as any connection between the anti-Imperialist phase of the conference and his anti-Imperialist League is concerned.
"This is," he said, "probably a practical adjournment of the meeting which was held in New York in the Plaza Hotel last week, and it is to be regarded wholly as a movement of individuals."

"We understand that you are out-and-out for Bryan this year," was suggested to Mr. Wins-

"Not until the 15th of August-not until after "Not until the 15th of August—not until after our conference can any one say whom we are for. We do not believe, however, that Mr. Bryan is to be blamed for the pert he took in urging the rat fication of the treaty. The Springfield Republican this morning explains Mr. Bryan's position very well. Along with the ratification of the treaty Mr. Bryan urged the Bacon resolution, guaranteeing the independence of the Philippines, and it wont do to lose sight of that fact and accuse him of favoring ratification for political purposes."

fact and accuse him of favoring ratification for political purposes."

"The nastiest thing about Senator Hoar's letter was," continued Mr. Winslow, "that he made the accomplice as bad as the thief. That is to say, Mr. Bryan only urged an indorsement of the plan which Mr. McKinley had prepared, and it is very unfair to throw upon a private citizen the blame for urging the acceptance of a policy which had been iald out and was being put through by the President of the United States."

It is understood that ex-Gov. Boutwell has States."
It is understood that ex-Gov. Boutwell has prepared a scorohing reply to the last letter of Senator Hear, but when questioned about it Mr. Winslow said it was doubtful if any more would be added to that interesting controversy, at least not at present.

CONFUSION AMONG THE ANTIS.

Gold Democrats and Anti-Imperialists Not in Accord at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, July 24.—If indications are to be relied on, the meeting of the National Gold Democrats will develop a very decided difference of opinion in respect to the expediency of putting national candidates in the field, and, at any rate, it is not among the probabilities that back being the noise caused by the elevated trains in Wabash avenue. The headquarters face on Congress street and Wabash avenue. Four years ago the elevated road was incomplete.

any rate, it is not among the probabilities that there will be fusion between that organization and the anti-imperialists. Several members of the latter party arrived this afternoon and at the same time a half dozen members of the National Golf Democrat rarty reached the city. The sentiment of the Gold Democrats seems to be that a third ticket would not poil as many vo es as Palmer and Buckner received in 1886 and that these votes, if left free from party obligation, would go to McKinley and that the result would not in the end be different from what it would be if a third ticket was nominated. T. P. Linn, the member from Ohio, H. T. Kent of Missouri and Gordon Woodbury of New Hampshire represent this entiment. They think it inexpedient to conduct a campaign unless there shall be some appreciable evidence that a result might be changed by it. On the other hand, the anti-imperialists are urging the establishment of a new party, and express the belief that it can be made a permanent organization if a union of the two forces can be effected. They say that the opposition to the imperialistic tendencies of the Administration is strong among Republicans in the East as opposition to free silver is among Democrats in the East and West, and that there two elements could effect an organization which might throw the election of a Precident into the House, where the new party might also hold the balance of power and dictate the election. afternoon and at the same time a half

BRENNAN AGAINST BOYLE.

Said to Have Joined the Keahon Forces for the Primary Battle. Ex-Alderman Patrick R. Keahon, who fighting East River Bridge Commissioner James W. Boyle for the Tammany leadership in the Seventh Assembly district, announced last night that the Edward F. Brennan Association had declared for him and would fight on his side in the primary contest. Mr. Brennan fought Mr. Boyle at the primaries in March, and polled 700 votes against Mr. Boyle's 1,100. The Brennans held a meeting last night at their club rooms, Eighth avenue and Twelfth street, and, according to Mr. Keahon, a representative of Mr. Boyle offered $1,500 for the club's support in August. Mr. Boyle's representatives suggest that the money might be spent to enlarge and beautify the clubroom. Mr. Brennan made a speech to his followers in which he said that if it was accepted it would mean that Mr. Boyle would retain his leadership another year, to which Mr. Brennan was much opposed. Thereupon the association voted to reject Mr. Boyle's proposition, and to indorse Keahon, and its members marched up Eighth avenue to the Keahon headquarters at 136, where all its members put down their names as Keahon men. fought Mr. Boyle at the primaries in March,

He then organized Company I of the Thirty-eighth United States Regulars and is now engaged in the service in the Philippines, being it command of the post of Banan in southern Luzon.

LOST OFF GRAND REPUBLIC. BROTHER OF MISSING MR. SLATER SAYS HE WAS LEFT TO DROWN.

Slater Went Overboard After His Bat Coming From Rockaway-His Brother Asserts That the Pilot Refused to Stop the Beat, Believing the Alarm a Ruse of Thieves.

Thomas Stater of 310 East Fifty-eighth street has called on the Coroners' offices in Brooklyn and Manhattan and at Police Headquarters in both beroughs to ask for news of his brother, John J. Siater, who lived with him. Mr. Siater s positive that his brother was drowned on July terized the efforts of the two big parties to dea 18 by jumping off the Grand Republic as the boat was making a return trip from Far Rock-AWAY.

John J. Slater was a bookkeeper and a notary public at 107 Franklin street. He was 44 years old. About three months ago he began to suffer from insomnia and this soon developed into nelancholia. His brother sent him to Dr. B. Sachs's private sanitarium at 556 and 558 West 149th street. Dr. Sachs prescribed long walks and sea trips for Mr. Slater. An attendant always accompanied him.
On Wednesday last Mr. Slater and his attendant went to Far Rockaway on the Grand Republic. They took the 5 o'clock boat back to public. They took the 5 o'clock Doat back to this city. On the way back, when the boat was off Manhattan Peach, the attendant stepped into the toilet room for a moment. When he returned to the deck Mr. Slater had disappeared. Later he heard that a man was overboard and some iriends of Mr. Slater told him that Mr. Slater was the man that was overboard. The attendant says that the boat did not slacken speed. He made a thorough search of the boat, but found no trace of Mr. Slater. He reported these facts to Mr. Slater's brother, and on the following day Thomas Slater went to the police. Nothing has been heard of the missing man.

"I intend to make trouble for somebody," said Mr. Slater last night. "I have four reputable witnesses to my brother's death. Three of them are personal friends of mine. They saw my brother at Far Rockaway and spoke to him there. They chanced to take the same boat home and saw him go overboard. They declars that they immediately raised the cry of "Man Overboard!" and went upstairs on a run to the pilot and toid him to stop the boat. The pilot did slacken the speed of the boat for a minute, but then went on his course. Not a boat was lowered and not allife belt was thrown.

"A woman whom I do not know personally, but who is theroughly reputable, witnessed my brother's death. She tells me that she was on the boat in the early morning when my brother went to Rockaway and that she saw his hat blow into the water. At Far Rockaway the attendant bought my brother another hat. The woman I speak of happened to be on the same steamer coming home and she says that while the attendant was away from my brother the second hat was blown into the water and that my brother lost his life trying to recover his hat. She says that ful y sop people saw my brother fall overboard! but that the cantain made no effort to save him, but she added that the boat had slackened its speed for a moment or two. I will not give the names of these witnesses until the proper time. "The day following my brother fall overboard! this city. On the way back, when the boat was off Manhattan Beach, the attendan

BROOKLYN REPUBLICANS AT WORK. An Auxiliary Committee Chosen to Aid in the Campaign.

A special meeting of the Republican Executive Committee in Brooklyn was held yesterday afternoon at the Joralemon street headquarters for the purpose of selecting an auxiliary committee of twenty-one members, one from each Assembly district, which, in conjunction with the Executive Committee, will constitute the Campaign Committee. Col. Michael J. Dady presided, and stated at the start that the national and State leaders had recommended that all the campaign preliminaries should be arranged as soon as possible, and that there should be no delay in getting down to work. The selection of the members of the Auxiliary Committee was left to repre-

Kennedy, George R. Schadle, Frank P. Troutman, Charles G. Benstell, Hibbard R. Maeters. Commissioner E. R. Kennedy George R. Schadle, Frank P. Troutman, Charles G. Bennett and Hibbard B. Masters.

It was decided to appoint also nine Auxiliary Committeemen-at-Large, but they will not be selected until Lieut.-Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff has been consuited. Mr. Woodruff is coming back from England on the Majestic, due this afternoon, and Col. E. Britton is going down the bay with a party on the stemmy acht Rialto to meet him. It is said that a revenue cutter is also going down the bay on the same mission with Walser B. Atterbury and another party of Mr. Woodruff's friends, and as each is said to have a permit to take him off the steamer there may be a chase to meet her first.

The Executive Committee and also the General Committee will meet on Tuesday night in the Johnston Building to fix the dates for the various nominating conventions. The latter body will also ratify the action of the Philadelphia Convention.

ELKINS PROMISES WEST VIRGINIA The Senator Says It Is Going for McKinley, and Gives His Reasons.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., July 24.-United States Senator Stephen B. Elkins arrived in the city last night on his way to Charleston. He was busy all the time he was here, but he gave out the following:

"The Republicans all over the country feel confident and are eager for the contest. I never knew the outlook to be so encouraging for success in the nation and in our State of West Virginia. The Republicans have done many things in the State that have brought them favorably before the whole party. We are the first State to speak after the Kansas City Convention. We have formed our line of battle and begun the attack on the enemy at once. The Democratic party has no defence. West Virginia is a protection State; her interests are so bound up with the policy of protection that business men at least must stand for that policy. Especially must the coal and timber interests stand for protection.

"I find the Republicans everywhere united and enthusiastic without divisions or differences. All Republicans will vote the Republicans, I find many Democratis who will support the Republican ticket on the grounds of expansion, a great many others on the grounds of finance and many others who are satisfied to let well enough along, and will either vote the Republican ticket or not vote at all.

"I never knew the outlook to be so encouraging in this State, and I believe we will gain largely in Democratic counties. I think that many Democrats are indifferent to Bryan and that he is not as strong as he was in '96 in West Virginia, while I am of the opinion that McKinley is much stronger now than he was when he ran the first time. We have a fine State ticket and its election I am confident of." them favorably before the whole party. We

MARYLAND WILL GO REPUBLICAN

So Says ex-Mayor Latrobe of Baltimore Wh Says He Is Still a Democrat. BALTIMORE, July 24 -Gen. Ferdinand C. Latobe, a Democrat of the old school, who served seven terms as Mayor of Bultimore, being known throughout the confines of the city as Ferdinand VII., thinks that Maryland will go for McKinley by a large majority. Gen. Latrobe is President of the Consolidated Gas Company of Baltimore and was one of those who waged of Baltimore and was one of those who wared war against the Dickey ticket recently. He is also a member of the Maryland Legislature. In an interview to-day Mr. Latrobe said: "I am a Democrat and I believe I know as well as any other man what is demanded from Democrats by their party. I did not votes for Bryan in 1896, nor did I vote for McKinley. I have my orinions about this year's nominations, but I do not care to state them. It is my belief, however, that the Republicans will carry Maryland by about 40,000 majority.

Twenty-Afth District Rally.

Edward H. Haley, leader of the Republicans in the Twenty-fifth Assembly district, has called a meeting for Friday eye, ing at 80'clock at Liberty Hall, 15th sirrer and Westchesker avenue, at which the McKinley and Roosevelt ticket and the Philadelphia platform will be in-dersed. HARD HARNED WIN FOR REAGAN. GOLFING AT SHINNECOCK. Breeklyn Bexer Defeats the Noted Chicago

Bantamweight at Coney Island. Clarence Forbes, the much-talked-of Chicago bantamweight pugilist, was fairly defeated at the Sea Sid : Ciub of Coney Island last night by chnny Reagan of Brooklyn, who got the referee's decision at the end of twenty rounds. The fight was above the average and was featured by Forbes's cleverness and tricky tactics. Reagan's strength had much to do with his victory. Though two twenty-round bouts were adverised, one was declared off. Harry Harris of Chicago refused to meet Johnny Reagan, because, as he said, "the doctor would not let him go on." Harris came to the clubhouse, weighed in and then took a look at the crowd, which numbered about 1,500 spectators. Possibly the small gate receipts and not "the doctor" had something to do with Harris's flunk. As a substitute bout Eugene Garda and Pete Burke were put on for ten rounds at catch weights with John White as referce. For five rounds it was probably the worst fight ever seen at the Island, so much so that one-eyed Connolly and Kid Blink, who sat together in a box, turned their faces away. Then John P. Dunn, one of the managers of the club, approached Burke's corner and said: "If ou ducks don't fight you don't get a centee?" So they tried to brace up in the sixth. with dublous results for half a minute, until Garcia whipped over a heavy right hander on the jaw and knocked Burke clean out. The ime of the round was 2 minutes 33 seconds.

The second affair was between "Itsy" Ryan and Billy Trueman, who were introduced for en rounds at 118 pounds. Trueman could not whip an old washerwoman and quit in the first ound. This peculiar matchmaking drew cries f "fake" and "skin" from the crowd, to say nothing of catcalls and hisses.

Forbes and Resgan appeared without delay or the event of the night. The conditions were Forbes and Reagan appeared without delay for the event of the night. The conditions were twenty rounds at 115 pounds. Oscar Gardner got in a challenge to the winner or any man in the world at this weight. Forbes demonstrated without delay that he was quick and a hard puncher. Rengan began forcing it, but the Chicago boy soon banged the right eye for a perceptible swelling. Forbes pounded the ribs and head with swings, paying no attestion to the ineffective stabs that his opponent put in. Forbes's blows seldom missed the mark and when the round ended it did not look like a prolonged fight.

Forbes met a rush in the second round with a hot left in the ribs and a flying right on the head. Reagan trid long-range work and most of his swings were stopped. Forbes shook his man with a left joit on the chin and then they mixed it to a clinch. Reagan forced the fight in the last half minute which permitted Forbes to show his scientific defence.

Reagan began the third with considerable confidence. He rush d in with a belt on the neck. Forbes prodding him in the stomach and banking him on the damaged eve. Reagan went into a mix, and both landed solid blows on the body. Then followed a flerce rally, in which Reagan held his own, but Forbes, after a dance for wind, came back with an assault that was met with such vigor that the men fought all over the ring to the gong.

Forbes was the first to show in the fourth. He caught Reagan on the eye and drove him off. Forbes followed closely and they got into another terrific mix-up. This time Reagan landed a punchion the jaw that made Forbes reel. Reagan piled in for a knock-out, and Forbes sed. Reagan piled in for a knock-out, and Forbes sed in the sex apilt. The Chicago boy was at a standstill once, but he rallied and as Reagan tered from his own efforts. Forbes had a lift as he went to his chair. His face was covered with blood.

Forbes used his legs in the fifth and got away from a series of attacks. Then he stood up and they can be a subject to the series of attacks. Then he s

Reagan came in, he hammered the latter on the neck with a great swing.

Reagan did the fighting in the first half of the ninth, but Forbes defended himself with extreme cleverness and then cut loose with a volley of swings that sent his antagonist to the ropes. Reagan came back with stomach blows and Forbes went to his corner apparently in great distress.

Forbes came up for the tenth with a vicious rush. Reagan mixed it with him and hammered him hard and fast in the stomach. Forbes again looked weary but he was able to sneak a tremendous right over to the jaw Reagan, however, kept on fighting with fierceness and rapidity, and had away the better of the round.

In the eleventh Reagan devoted almost his entiry attention to the stomach, while Forbes

In the eleventh Reagan devoted almost his entire attention to the atomach, while Forbes countered on the head and tried to reach the jaw with short hooks. Forbes finally deubled up from the force of a stomach punch and groaned. At the same time he winked at his seconds and went to his corner with a grin on his face.

Reagan did the work in the twelith, but he couldn't land an effective blow because of his opposent's clever shiftiness. Reagan was coming all through the thirteenth round, and before the end Forbes's nose was bleeding. Reagan landed many solid blows in the fourteenth. Forbes remaining on the defensive, but occasionally sneaking over dangerous swings for the faw.

Reagan drove in a stomach punch in the fifteenth and Forbes went to his knee for a full count. As he got up he winked at the referee and then rushed after his man pell mell. A terrific slugging bee ensued in which Reagan held his own and drew the blood from the Chicago boy's mouth. It was give and take all over the ring after that until the going ended it.

Forbes tried the pivot blow in the sixteenth Forbes tried the pivot blow in the sixteenth and missed. He was warned, however, by the referee. Reagan was strong and rugged now and his blows seemed more effective. Reagan worked hard in the seventeenth and with a hook on the jaw he sett Forbes down for nine seconds. The Chicago boy leaped up and with a rush he landed a corking left swing on the jaw that made Reagan's knees knock together as he went to his corner.

Forbes tumbled down in the eighteenth and took the count. At that time he outfought his man all through the round, though Reagan excelled greatly at infighting.

Forbes tried Pepeated right-handers for the jaw in the nineteenth, but Reagan not only blocked them nicely, but also administered a pretty severe body punching, as in the previous rounds.

Forbes made a great brace in the last round, but Reagan was there all the way until he alipped in his corner and fell heavily. When he arose Forbes piled in, but no time was left.

RYAN AND ROOT DRAW. Tame Six-Round Fight Between the Clever Middleweights.

CHICAGO, July 24.-Tommy Ryan of Syracuse and Jack Root of this city fought six rounds to a draw before 10,000 persons at the Tattersall A. C. here to-night. The fight was rather tame from the start.

Root led off with two light jabs. Ryan felt his way during the second minute, and got his right over Root's ear, with a kind of back heel, and Root went down but was up quickly. Ryan outfeinted Root, but no telling blows were delivered.

The third round was opened with wild slugging. Ryan's best punch was one to the head, but Root got a straight right on Ryan's jaw and staggered him. Both slugged away, but kept so well covered that no harm is done. Ryan kept his head well down.

Ryan showed his superior cleverness in the fourth round and had much the better of it. In the fifth Ryan rushed, and Root, clinched. The latter awang around Ryan's head continually. There was a fleree interchange of rights and lefts to face, with honers even. Root landed his right on Ryan's jaw, the latter uppercutting ineffectually. Ryan ducked a terrific right swing, and the round closed with brisk slugging at short range.

In the sixth round there was a mix-up at once, Root having the better of the exchanges, Ryan forced Root all through, but there was no particular feature. Both men hugged, broke and hugged again, Ryan smiling all the time. Both men were fresh at the close.

The decision of a draw was received without the slightest applause. They were to weigh 105 rounds at the ring ide. Root weighed 161 and Ryan 154. Choynski and Tommy White were in Root's corner, and Jack Jeffries and Harry Gilmore in Ryan's. George Siler was referee.

AUSPICIOUS OPENING OF ANNUAL TOURNEY ON THE DUNES. Remerkable Scoring in the Barly Rounds
-Among the Low Men A. M. Brown and W. J. Travis Tie for the Gold Medal-Prospect of Close Contests for President's Cup. SOUTHAMPTON July 24.—Sunshine brightened the links at the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club today, a pleasant change from the rain and mist of the opening day of the annual tournament a year ago. There was consequently more even scoring among the top-notchers. In the morning four, including Travis, were tied at 81 for low score, and twenty-two were 87 or under. There were sixty-nine to start against thirty-four last year when the low score was 160 and the top score of the first sixteen 177. This time 160 was again low and 173 high for the sixteen who will keep on for the President's cup. The average was 168. This is the most remarkable scoring ever known in an open tournament. The low scorers tied for the gold medal were A. M. Brown, who in the afternoon made 78, and W J. Travis. The top score for the Peconic cup was 174 and two tied for last place in the Consolation set at 184. No less than six were under 170 in the first sixteen. Travis and Brown will play off their tie for the gold medal in Satur day's handicap.

There was the usual gavety about the clubhouse environs but there were few to follow the different pairs. Medal play does not bring out a gallery like match play, for the element of direct competition is lacking. But there was a crowd to watch the start and finish of the long race against bogey figures. In the afternoon, however, Travis and Watson, Jr. attracted a gallery. The folks had learned that this was worth while by the morning scores when there were but two strokes between them.

"I am surprised," said Travis at the luncheon res', "that no one has equalled my record of 78, made at the last tournament. For myself, poor putting was the fault. I have not made the round in worse than 79 this week, yet to-day I needed 81. But I expect to see better to-day I needed 81. But I expect to see better scoring this afternoon."

As the later cards showed, Travis was a true prophet. That Archie Brown should have been in the ranks of record-breakers was a surprise only to the outsiders, for while he has never played except at this course, Brown won the open handicap here two years ago and is a very brilliant young golfer.

Lawrence Curti-, who succeeded the late T. A. Havenceyer as President of the United States G. A., was a competitor, but he did not fare well. It was not Boston's day, for both Cory and Frothingham were also backsliders. Some other players who did not force attention by beating their past records were Delancey Nicoli, Alexander Morten, F. G. Beach, the New Havenite of Cuban war fame, and Elihu Root, Jr., son of the Becretary of War, who is a Hamilton junior and made his first appearance in an open tournament.

the folind in worse than the started to see better to day I needed 81. But I expect to see better scoring this a termon."

As the later cards showed, Tavis was a true as the later cards showed, the seems of the counted the seems of the seems of was fine and the course in admirable shape. With reference especially to the atternoon's play, it would be impossible to use anything but superlatives. It is hard to say where either had the advantage. Smith outdrove Vardon from the tee several times. Vardon, on the other hand, also outdrove Smith. Both made magnificent bras-ev shots, Vardon's being perhaps a bit the straighter. The iron work of both was accurate, Vardon having a little the better of it. On the green it was a tossup, but Smith perhaps had a shade the better. Of the thirty-five holes played Vardon took eleven, Smith nine, and fifteen were halved. Smith secured his greatest advantage at the thirteenth bole, when he was 3up. The men were all square at the ninth. Vardon pulled down Smith's lead of three by taking the flourteenth, fifteenth and sixteenth, but Smith took the next two, finishing the morning round two up. Vardon had decreased his opponent's advantage so that they were square at the twenty-seventh, and though Smith strove valiantly he could not equal Vardon's pace, and the finish came with a three-yard put by Vardon on the seventeenth green.

On Fr.day Vardon was defeated on the links of the Chicago Golf (lub by 6 up and 4 to play in a match against the best ball of James Foulls of Wheaton and Fred Herd of Washington Park, both ex-open golf champlons of the United States. Vardon showed no evidence of his reported recent illness, and was defeated simply because his opponents played superior golf. Herd did better in the morning round than Foulls, but the well-known Wheaton professional redeemed himself in the afternoon by as brilliant a came as has been seen on the Chicago Golf Club's links in many days.

Desert Racing Association. BAR HARBOR, July 24 .- The boating interest here yesterday were combined in an organization known as the Mount Desert Racing Association. Primarily it is composed of the new 25-footers popularly known as knockabouts, but is also in the interest of all other classes. The definite formation of the association was decided on at a meeting held on Sunday night, at Chiltern, Edgar Scott's house. Those present included the own house. Those present included the own ers of the 25-footers now here, and were: Edward Dev. Morrell, William Lawrence Green, A. Y. Stewart, R. H., Thorndike, Edgar Scott and V. E. Macy. Edgar Scott was elected President, Edward Dev. Morrell Vice-President William Lawrence Green Secretary, Treasurer and Measurer, R. H. Thorndike Assistant Measurer. It was decided to hold races every Wednesday and Saturday during the season. The prizes will be cups offered by the association. They will be awarded on a percentage basis. The boat winning the greatest number of points will be declared winner. Special cups offered by members or their friends will be competed for on the scheduled race days. There will be a number of women's races. The crews of the boats are limited to two mateurs and two profe-sionals, the latter being permitted to steer during the season of 1900, after which only amateurs may handle the tiller. Courses up and down Frenchman's Bay were laid out, the start and finish being within the harbor.

A regatta will be held during horse-show week. The new organization is meeting with favor on all sides. A large clubhouse will be built next year. The N. Y. Y. C. is expected to cooperate and to make Bar Harbor the terminus of their eastern cruise. ers of the 25-footers now here, and the open sea this afternoon, the course being once over the triangle sailed by the 70-footers. It was a most interesting contest, and at the finish four of the yachts crossed the line inside of thirty-two seconds. There was a smoky southwester of the yachts crossed the line inside of thirtytwo seconds. There was a smoky southwester blowing, but the force was not as much as might be wished for. Five boats came to the line, the largest fleet this season. The start was made from the Brenton Reef lightship, the first leg being a broad reach of four miles. The Hera got the start, with the Wa Was close second and in the weather position, and at the mark was in the lead by a few seconds. She rounded it at 4.48. The next leg was a beat to windward, the mark being five and a half miles off. On the wind the boats kept in close quarters, but the Wa Wa held the windward berth. The outer mark was rounded by the Wa Wa and Hera almost simultaneously, the former inside. She had no sooner cleared the mark than she had her spinnaker on and was bowling along to the lightship, five and a half miles due north. On the run Wa Wa and Hera had interesting juffing matches. Before the line was made the boats had to take in their spinnakers and reach, the Wa Wa crossing eight seconds shead of the Hera. The summary:

The Josephine finished second in the 40-foot class and the Juanita third. Both are Toledo boats. The Suitana of Detroit was beaten by fitteen minutes. The time of the Viking was 2 hours 24 minutes 24 seconds. The Eva of Sandusky was an easy winner in the 35-foot class. She started 10 minutes after the Viking and 20 minutes after the Suitana beating the Suitana in, and finishing within 3 minutes of the Viking. The Eva made the beat time over the triangular course, 2:18:32. In the 30-foot class the Domique of Detroit took first, her time being 2:39:03, Tattoo of Sandusky second, and Cricket, Detroit, third. The Wrinkle of Sandusky took first in the 25-foot class. The free-for-all will begun to-morrow. She was sailed by Commodore Frank Frey.
